

Unified Response to Violent Incidents

Joint Training for Fire Personnel and Law Enforcement

The CFFJAC is pleased to announce the availability of Unified Response to Violent Incidents. This Train-the-Trainer course was developed under a grant from Cal OES. The course prepares participants to conduct joint-training classes and exercises for local Fire Service first responders and Law Enforcement at active shooter and other violent incidents. Special emphasis is placed on providing the highest level of service to the public through the cooperative efforts of both Fire and Law agencies.

This course is offered free of charge to California Fire Department and Law Enforcement agencies.

Course Content: The information and best practices identified and specified by FEMA, FIRESCOPE and the National Fallen Firefighters Foundation form the core of the course.

Subjects include:

- History, Lessons Learned
- Unified Command and Operations
- Federal, State, Local Guidelines
- SOP's/SOG's
- Tactical Considerations
- LE and Fire Terminology
- PPE/Safety
- Exercises
- EMS Skills Modules
- Rescue Task Force
- Template for Local Policies and Training Courses

Who can attend: Department authorized instructors from Federal, State or Local Fire and Law Enforcement agencies. Response exercises are used during the course, so Fire and Law Enforcement agencies must register and attend together. CFFJAC will confirm authorization with Fire and Law Enforcement Department heads.
