INTRODUCTION

As fire service professionals, we all understand the need for standardized yet contemporary rules; and we at State Fire Training recognize the concern of the California fire service for standardization of the programs managed by State Fire Training. This document is intended to provide that standardization.

Many changes have occurred in our operational procedures since the first CFSTES Policies and Procedures Manual was issued in 1985. In many instances, these have necessitated revision of existing requirements and the development of new ones.

As with any document published by this office, we have attempted to include all the information that you, the user, might find useful. If, however, you do not find the information you need or have a question regarding the application of a procedure, please contact us.

OFFICE OF STATE FIRE MARSHAL

(A) MISSION

The mission of the Office of State Fire Marshal (OSFM) is to protect life and property through the development and application of fire protection engineering, enforcement, and education. This mission involves establishment of a fire-safe environment for the citizens of California, an environment that serves as a foundation to be built upon and molded by local agencies to meet their specific needs. The State Fire Marshal is able to achieve the objective of public fire safety because legally organized local fire authorities generally carry out enforcement of the minimum fire safety standards. This delegation of enforcement responsibilities eliminates duplicating and overlapping effort and, at the same time, preserves the concept of local autonomy.

(B) INTRODUCTION

The Office of State Fire Marshal functions as an entity within the California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection. The mission of the Office is carried out in three basic ways: 1) by regulating buildings in which people live, congregate, or are confined; 2) by controlling substances and products which may, in and of themselves, or by their misuse, cause injuries, death, and destruction by fire; and 3) by training and educating in fire protection methods and responsibilities. Reduced to its simplest terms, the function of the State Fire Marshal is fire prevention. That function is accomplished through several major program elements, including: regional operations, technical services, training, arson and bomb investigation, pipeline safety, oil refinery and chemical plant safety, and fire incident reporting.

In addition to these program elements, the State Board of Fire Services (SBFS) plays a major role in providing a state-level focus for resolving fire prevention and control issues affecting the entire fire service. This board is comprised of representation from fire service labor, Fire Chiefs, fire districts, volunteer fire fighters, city and county governments, CAL FIRE, OES, and the insurance industry. It is chaired by the State Fire Marshal. The Board serves in an advisory capacity in such areas as the development of technical and professional performance standards for training fire service personnel, accreditation of curriculum, establishing policy for the certification system for the California fire service, and other issues of concern and importance.

The OSFM has established several other advisory committees comprised of SFM staff, fire service representatives, outside agencies, and industry people to aid in carrying out the regulations and duties of the Office.

STATE FIRE TRAINING

(A) OVERVIEW

The OSFM's fire service training functions are an outgrowth of the transfer of the Fire Service Training and Education Program (FSTEP) from the Department of Education in 1978. Since that time, the OSFM's role has evolved from one in which State Fire Marshal staff worked directly with fire departments in the field to one of coordination of the statewide delivery system, working through and with community colleges and registered instructors.

It is important to note that all of the following services are self-funded by fees paid by the participants.

(B) CALIFORNIA FIRE SERVICE TRAINING AND EDUCATION SYSTEM

The California Fire Service Training and Education System (CFSTES) was created in a continuing effort to establish coordination among the various elements that contribute to the development, delivery, and administration of training for the California fire service.

CFSTES was the name given to the former "California Fire Academy System" which represented the initial attempt to employ a "system" concept to fire service training. The name was decided upon to avoid confusion with the California Fire Academy at Asilomar. Through the years, CFSTES has become synonymous with CERTIFICATION.

(1) Objectives.

(a) The objective of CFSTES is to provide a single statewide focus for fire service training in California. General functions of the System include:

1. Implementing OSFM standards and requirements.
2. Managing curriculum development.
3. Accrediting courses leading to certification.
4. Approving standardized training programs for local and regional delivery.
5. Administering the certification system.
6. Publishing certification training standards, instructor guides, student manuals, and related support materials.
7. Maintaining liaison with individuals, groups, organizations, and agencies involved in training.

(b) Some of these functions require direct control, as in the case of certification and accreditation; however, for the most part, CFSTES' role is one of facilitating, coordinating, and assisting in the development and delivery of standardized in-service and specialty training for the California fire service.

(2) How CFSTES works.

- (a) The California State Fire Marshal has the responsibility for the System.
- (b) A full-time staff, headed by the Chief for State Fire Training manages CFSTES from the OSFM headquarters in Sacramento.

STATE FIRE TRAINING PROCEDURES MANUAL

- (c) The development and updating of curriculum, certification exams, and student manuals is accomplished through advisory committees or volunteer task forces of working professionals in the field.
- (d) STEAC reviews all substantive changes and/or additions to standards, rules, and procedures before presentation to the SBFS and the OSFM for adoption.
- (e) CFSTES is self-funded from participant fees.
 - 1. Student registrations.
 - 2. Certification fees.
 - 3. Sale of bookstore materials.
- (3) Training guides and resources.
 - (a) Career Development Guides/Certification Training Standards providing an analysis of each task contained in each certification track. This guide lists a performance standard for each task identified and an applicable reference source.
 - (b) Instructor guides providing the instructor with lesson plans and objectives for all tasks included in the curriculum.
 - (c) Student texts, manuals, and supplements.
 - (d) Skills exams when applicable.
 - (e) Course final written exams when applicable.
 - (f) Periodic tests and certification exams.
- (4) Certification system.
 - (a) The term "certification" is used to recognize an individual for having met approved professional standards by meeting certification prerequisites, experience requirements, completing a specific accredited course of study, and passing appropriate certification examinations.
 - (b) This dynamic system has evolved over many years, and is the result of input from individuals and organizations within the California fire service.

(C) FIRE SERVICE TRAINING AND EDUCATION PROGRAM

The Fire Service Training Education Program, or FSTEP, is designed to provide both volunteer and career fire fighters with hands-on training in fire fighting, extrication, rescue, emergency vehicle operations, pump operations, and the Incident Command System. Courses are delivered through registered instructors and may be custom tailored by the instructor to meet a department's specific needs. Upon successful completion of a course, the instructor will issue a California State Fire Marshal's certificate of completion to the student.

FSTEP is also the term used for the training programs available from SFT that do not lead toward certification. In addition to the traditional FSTEP courses, the Incident Command System, Confined Space Rescue, and Emergency Care of the Sick and Injured are included under the FSTEP umbrella.

The courses vary in length, ranging from self-study programs for some of the ICS courses to 40 hours for Confined Space Rescue Operations training. Instructor guides and student manuals support several courses while others are supported only with course outlines. All courses are taught by registered instructors.

The State Fire Marshal is charged under Article 4 of the Health and Safety Code (state law) titled California Fire Service Training and Education Program (FSTEP) to make available fire service training and education programs on a voluntary basis to fire departments that rely extensively on volunteers.

(D) CALIFORNIA FIRE ACADEMY (CFA)

The California Fire Academy at Monterey is cosponsored and managed by SFT in cooperation with Monterey Peninsula College.

On the Monterey Campus, the Academy conducts specialized training courses and advanced officer programs of statewide impact. On-campus programs are targeted to middle and top-level fire officers, fire service instructors, technical professionals, and representatives from allied professions. Any person with substantial involvement in fire prevention and control, emergency medical services, or fire-related emergency management activities is qualified for academy courses.

PROGRAM ACCOUNTABILITY

It is the responsibility of each ARTP/ALA to maintain the standards by which it gained accreditation. The OSFM will reevaluate the accredited status of an ARTP/ALA in the event that compliance with these standards comes into question. Direct written complaints will be reviewed and investigated by the OSFM; verbal comments/complaints will not be acted upon.

(A) ACTION TO ENSURE ACCOUNTABILITY

- (1) Corrective action may be necessary to ensure compliance with the procedures of the OSFM and to call to the ARTP's/ALA's attention any problems that have arisen.
- (2) The OSFM views this section with seriousness, as revoking an accreditation has far reaching effects.
 - (a) For that reason, all rights and privileges normally found in an administrative hearing, including appeal rights, will be followed.
- (3) Remedial action.
 - (a) Corrective comment.
 1. Least serious action.
 2. Will usually be corrected through personal contact, either on the telephone or in person.
 - (b) Written comment.
 1. Will serve as documentation in the ARTP/ALA's file of a policy breach or infraction.
 2. Multiple written comments may lead to a notice of ARTP/ALA suspension or revocation of accreditation.
- (4) Suspension of accreditation.
 - (a) Based on documented evidence of policy breaches.
 - (b) May be heard administratively.
 - (c) ARTP/ALA will receive written notification of the proposed suspension.
 1. Notification will include specific details of the policy breaches or other infractions, and the penalty proposed.
 2. Chief of State Fire Training will make this notification.
 - (d) ARTP/ALA will be given a specified period of time to respond to the notice of suspension in writing.
- (5) Revocation of accreditation.

 - (b) Based on documented evidence of persistent policy breaches.
 - (c) May be heard administratively.

- (d) ARTP/ALA will receive written notification of the proposed revocation.
 - 1. Notification will include specific details of the policy breaches or other infractions, and the penalty proposed.
 - 2. Chief of State Fire Training will make this notification.
- (6) Appeal process.
 - (a) Step 1.
 - 1. ARTP/ALA must submit in writing all evidence to support reversing the action.
 - a. Submitted to the Assistant State Fire Marshal.
 - 2. If requested by the ARTP/ALA in the written appeal request, or required by the Assistant State Fire Marshal in order to fully examine the issues, an administrative hearing will be scheduled and held.
 - a. Assistant State Fire Marshal will, in coordination with the ARTP/ALA, schedule all administrative hearings.
 - b. Date, time, and location will be forwarded to the ARTP/ALA.
 - 3. After review of all submitted materials and/or testimony provided during an administrative hearing, the Assistant State Fire Marshal will, by written letter, notify the ARTP/ALA of the decision to uphold, modify, or withdraw the action.
 - a. Notification will advise the training program/academy of the effective date of the action, as well as the next level of appeal.
 - (b) Step 2.
 - 1. Should the ARTP/ALA desire to further appeal, the process outlined in Step 1 will be followed, with the exception that the appeal shall be submitted to the Statewide Training and Education Advisory Committee (STEAC).
 - 2. Assistant State Fire Marshal will agendaize the appeal for the next regularly scheduled meeting of STEAC.
 - (c) Step 3.
 - 1. Should the ARTP/ALA desire to further appeal, the final level will be to the State Fire Marshal.
 - 2. Decision of the State Fire Marshal will be considered final and binding.

 - (a) An ARTP is required to utilize local processing.
 - (b) An ALA has the option to utilize local processing.

(B) ARTP/ALA RESPONSIBILITY

- (1) Ensure that local processing is in compliance with SFT procedures.
 - (a) Failure to do so may result in forfeiture of the local processing program and/or revocation of accreditation.
- (2) Maintain the written certification examinations, answer keys, and course completion certificates in a secured, locked area.
 - (a) Ensure only the ARTP Manager and ALA Administrative Officer and their designees have access to the examinations, answer keys, and certificates.
 - (b) If a test is lost or test security is breached, the ARTP Manager and ALA Administrative Officer must notify SFT immediately.
 - (c) ARTP/ALA shall be charged a minimum of $500.00 to help offset the cost of developing another test. This fee must be paid within 30 days of being invoiced.
 - (d) Failure to notify SFT of a breach in test security may result in the loss of accreditation.
- (3) In coordination with the Primary Instructor, verify student eligibility for taking the written certification exam.

(C) PROCESS

- (1) Local processing is established at the time of the ARTP/ALA's accreditation or annual renewal.
 - (a) Authorization is valid for the accreditation period.
- (2) Requests from an ALA to process exams locally must be forwarded to the Chief of State Fire Training.
- (3) SFT sends an electronic copy of each exam requested, a corresponding answer key, a supply of CFSTES Scantron answer sheets, and numbered course completion certificates to the ARTP Manager or ALA Administrative Officer.
- (4) Students attending an ARTP/ALA pay the course registration fee to the ARTP/ALA, successfully complete the course, and take the CFSTES written certification exam on a CFSTES Scantron answer sheet or another answer sheet available for grading by the ARTP/ALA.
 - (a) If another answer sheet is used by the ARTP/ALA, students must complete all sections of the CFSTES Scantron answer sheet except the TEST ITEMS section.
- (5) ARTP/ALA designee grades the exams using the method available at the local level.
 - (a) Students failing the certification exam may retake it, once, at no additional charge.

 - (a) SFT staff reviews written evaluations. Problems or trends are noted and acted on immediately. Average evaluations are filed and utilized to identify trends or continuity of the instructor's classes. Positive evaluations are also noted and may be recognized as deemed appropriate by SFT.
- (2) Site visits are conducted by SFT staff and should not be construed as negative contact. There are generally four reasons that site visits are done: 1) quality control, 2) to evaluate an exceptional instructor, 3) to evaluate an instructor who has chronic problems, 4) to ensure that a Primary Instructor or approved assistant is teaching the class. Site visits are a way to make staff accessible to instructors, students, or training coordinators statewide.
- (3) Direct written comments/complaints will be handled in the same way as formal written evaluations. Verbal comments/complaints will not be acted on. Complainants will be requested to submit their comments in writing.

(B) ACTION TO ENSURE ACCOUNTABILITY

- (1) Corrective action may be necessary to ensure compliance with the procedures of SFT and to call to the instructor's attention any problems that have arisen during or after a course.
- (2) SFT views this section with seriousness as we realize that revoking an individual's instructor registration has far reaching effects. For that reason, we will afford all rights and privileges that are normally found in an administrative hearing, including appeal rights.
- (3) Remedial action.
 - (a) Corrective comment: This is the least serious action and will usually be corrected through personal contact, either on the telephone or in person.
 - (b) Written comment: This form of comment will serve as documentation in the instructor's file of a policy breach or infraction.
 1. Multiple written comments may lead to a notice of instructor suspension or revocation.
- (4) Suspension of instructor registration.
 - (a) Suspension of instructor registration may be heard administratively.
 - (b) It will be based on documented evidence of policy breaches or flagrant misbehavior as an instructor while conducting a SFT course.
 - (c) The instructor will receive written notification of the proposed suspension. The notification will include specific details of the policy breaches or other infractions, and the penalty proposed. The Chief of State Fire Training will make this notification.
 - (d) The instructor will be given a specified period of time to respond to the notice of suspension in writing.

- (e) Immediate suspension may occur if, in the opinion of SFT, a violation of or a threat to public safety has occurred.
 - 1. In these cases, the instructor will immediately be required to cease all instructional activities. Appeal of this decision may then be submitted as provided in the Appeals Process section.
- (5) Revocation of instructor registration.
 - (a) Revocation of instructor registration, the most serious form of action, may also be heard administratively.
 - (b) It will be based on documented evidence of policy breaches or flagrant misbehavior as an instructor while conducting an accredited course.
 - (c) The instructor will receive written notification of the proposed revocation. The notification will include specific details of the policy breaches or other infractions, and the penalty proposed. The Chief of State Fire Training will make this notification.
 - (d) The instructor will be given a specified period of time to respond to the notice of revocation in writing.
 - (e) Immediate revocation may occur if, in the opinion of SFT, a violation of or a threat to public safety has occurred.
 - 1. In these cases, the instructor will immediately be required to cease all instructional activities. Appeal of this decision may then be submitted as provided in the Appeals Process section.
- (6) Appeal process.
 - (a) Step 1.
 - 1. The instructor must submit in writing all evidence to support reversing the action.
 - 2. The appeal must be submitted to the Assistant State Fire Marshal.
 - 3. If requested by the instructor in the written appeal request, or required by the Assistant State Fire Marshal in order to fully examine the issues, an administrative hearing will be scheduled and held.
 - a. The Assistant State Fire Marshal will, in coordination with the instructor, schedule all administrative hearings. The date, time, and location of the hearing will be forwarded to the instructor.
 - 4. After review of all submitted materials and/or testimony provided during an administrative hearing, the Assistant State Fire Marshal will, by written letter, notify the instructor of decision to uphold, modify, or withdraw the action.
 - a. The notification will advise the instructor of the effective date of the action, as well as the next level of appeal.

STATE FIRE TRAINING PROCEDURES MANUAL

- (b) Step 2.
 - 1. Should the instructor desire to further appeal, the process outlined in Step 1 will be followed with the exception that the appeal must be submitted to the Statewide Training and Education Committee (STEAC).
 - 2. The Assistant State Fire Marshal will agendaize the appeal for the next regularly scheduled meeting of STEAC.
- (c) Step 3.

CONFINED SPACE RESCUE TECHNICIAN

TRAINING SITE ACCREDITATION

A Confined Space Rescue Technician (CSRT) Training Site must have facilities, structures, work areas, materials, props, tools, and equipment of adequate size, type, and quantity to fully and safely support the technical and manipulative training required to deliver the CSRT curriculum.

- (4) CSRT Training Sites will meet the minimum requirements to support curriculum delivery.
 - (a) A completed "Request for CSRT Course Scheduling" providing the dates and location of the upcoming course.
 - (b) The names of all CSRT instructors must be included with the request to support class size.

(B) SITE CAPACITY

A CSRT Training Site is evaluated on its ability to deliver the required training. A One-squad Site is the minimum and is capable of delivering training to twelve (12) students or one (1) squad. Additional sites may be capable of delivering training to twenty-four (24) or thirty-six (36) students simultaneously. Each capacity level represents the maximum number of students or squads that may be taught on the site at any given time. This maximum number will be determined based on the suitability of the site to safely train between twelve (12) and thirty-six (36) students.

- (1) To adopt a standard EMT-I curriculum that meets the current U.S. Department of Transportation's (DOT) Basic National Standard Curriculum for California Recruit Fire Academies and in-service training programs. [§100075\(a\)]².
- (2) To identify the tasks a candidate must successfully perform to obtain certification.
- (3) To provide the means for maintaining a record of training accomplishments.
- (4) To correlate SFT certification standards with State EMS certification standards.
- (5) To have all fire service emergency responders in California become EMT-I certified.

(B) TRAINING GUIDES AND RESOURCES

- (1) SFT has adopted Brady's Emergency Care, Pearson Education, Inc., Prentice-Hall, Tenth Edition for instructional and student materials. Other publisher's curriculum equivalent to U.S. DOT EMT-Basic National Standard Curriculum may be used.
- (2) EMT-I Skills Packet.
- (3) EMT-I Skills Competencies Verification form.
- (4) Basic course final written exam.
- (5) Refresher course final written exam.

(C) AUTHORITY [§100065\(b\)\(4\)].

This SFT EMT-I training and certification program is approved by the EMS Authority in accordance with Health and Safety Code, §1797.173, California Code of Regulations, Title-22, Division 9, Chapter 2, 100066(b) Emergency Medical Technician-I. EMT-I certification is valid statewide.

(D) COMPONENTS OF THE PROGRAM [§100073].

SFT's EMT-I program consists of:

- (1) EMT-I Basic course, including clinical experience.
- (2) Periodic and final written and skill exams.
- (3) Challenge exam.
- (4) EMT-I Refresher course.

(E) CERTIFICATION ESTABLISHED.

Certification program established January 1, 1980. EMT-I regulations became effective July 13, 1994 in order to: 1) consolidate to a single scope of practice and eliminate the "A" and "NA" designator, 2) allow refresher training through continuing education, 3) extend eligibility for certification through refresher training from one to four years. As a result of these changes to Title 22, the EMT-I program was updated April 1995.

² Section numbers refer to the California Code of Regulations, Title-22, Division 9, Chapter 2

In September 2004, EMT-I regulations were changed in order to: 1) require the National Registry EMT-Basic exam as the certifying exam (no later than January 1, 2006), 2) revise the scope of practice, 3) revise the optional skills, 4) replace the required course content with the U.S. DOT's EMT-B National Standard Curriculum, 5) require CPR as a prerequisite to taking the course, 6) require program directors to complete 40 hours of teaching methodology courses, 7) allow EMT-Is to be Primary Instructors, 8) Require Primary Instructors license or certificate to be current, 9) increase the minimum number of hours from 114 to 120 hours, 10) increase clinical experience to five (5) actual (not simulated) patients, 11) revise the training requirements for recertification with a lapsed certificate, 12) update the reciprocity of other EMT personnel, and 13) revise the required skills competencies and authorized verifiers for recertification. Because of these changes to Title 22, the EMT-I program was updated January 2005.

SYNCHRONIZATION

(A) OVERVIEW

The California State Fire Marshal's Office and the California EMS Authority find it reasonable, and allowable in regulation, to shorten the certification period of some individuals in order to synchronize recertification dates of EMT-I certificates within an individual agency. It is incumbent on the Primary Instructor to ensure compliance with this and all SFT rules pertaining to EMT training as well as statutes and regulations.

In order for an individual agency to synchronize EMT recertification dates, the following process must be adhered to:

- (1) The Primary Instructor shall notify all EMTs enrolled in the recertification course of this rule. The Primary Instructor shall also notify the students that some certification periods may be shortened because of this rule, but no certification periods must be extended.
- (2) The request to SFT to synchronize dates must be made on department letterhead and signed by the Chief of the department. This letter must accompany the initial request for course scheduling.
- (3) Requests received after the class has been processed will not be honored. It is the Primary Instructor's responsibility to enclose the letter and ensure receipt by SFT.
- (4) The certification date given each student will be either the ending date of the course or the date of the last synchronization period.
- (5) The process will only be allowed when all recertifying EMTs are employees or agents of a single requesting agency.
- (6) All individuals must otherwise meet all requirements for recertification in CCR, Title 22.

 - (b) Temporary accreditation.
 1. A short-term use site that meets the Rescue Systems 1 Site Requirements and Equipment Standards.
 2. Typically, these sites are in areas where permanent sites are not practical or available.
 3. Accreditation is granted for the purpose of delivering a set number of courses.
 4. Once the training is complete, the temporary accreditation is rescinded.
- (2) Application process and site inspection.
 - (a) Full accreditation.
 1. A Rescue Systems 1 Training Site representative submits to the Chief of State Fire Training a formal letter requesting full accreditation for a permanent site.
 - a. This letter must describe the site in detail by listing the facilities, structures, work areas, materials, props, tools, and equipment available and ready for delivering a Rescue Systems 1 course.

 3. Photographs of each required structure, work area, and prop must be included in the application package.
 4. A completed "Request for Rescue Systems Course Scheduling" providing the dates of the upcoming course and all instructors must be included in the application package.
 5. Temporary accreditation must be requested at least ninety (90) days before the beginning date of the course.
- (3) Appeals.
- (a) Step 1.
1. The Rescue Systems 1 Training Site representative must submit in writing to the Chief of State Fire Training all evidence to support reversing the site accreditation denial.
 2. After review of all submitted materials, the Chief of State Fire Training will notify the site representative in writing of the decision to uphold, modify, or withdraw the denial of accreditation.

California Incident Command Certification System

CICCS PROGRAM

(A) OVERVIEW

Every year, California is assaulted by wildland fires that are catastrophic to our citizens, economy, and natural resources. Wildland fires are often large in scale, destroying thousands of acres of timber, homes, ecologically and historically sensitive areas, and often require hundreds and sometimes thousands of fire fighters to quell.

These types of incidents are very complex, requiring fire-fighting resources that possess specialized skill sets. The ability to effectively understand and predict fire behavior, air operations and manage large numbers of resources are a few of the skills required to effectively deal with these and in the future other all risk incidents.

Fire fighters, whose primary day-to-day assignments and training are focused on hazards associated with municipal fire problems such as structural fire protection, medical and rescue incidents, are called to serve in unfamiliar environments.

The Office of State Fire Marshal tasked a committee of the SBFS members with developing a certification system that would enhance our state's ability to field resources that are adequately trained and qualified for service through our emergency response system.

It is our intent and goal that the California Incident Command Certification System (CICCS) will enhance the abilities of our state's fire fighters to adequately prepare themselves to eventually respond to all types of incidents by clearly identifying certification criteria.

Based on the National Wildfire Coordinating Group's 310-1, the CICCS is designed to be managed at local, regional, and state levels. CICCS provides a road map for new resources to be certified as well as recognizing those individuals who have already completed equivalent training and are already functioning at these levels.

(B) FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

- (1) Will all fire department personnel need to be retrained to meet the CICCS requirements?

No. Many fire department personnel probably already meet many of the elements of the new system. CICCS is based on National Wildfire Coordinating Group (NWCG) 310-1, Wildland and Prescribed Fire Qualification System Guide, which has been in use for several years by federal wildland fire agencies, as well as by many local fire agencies throughout the state. Typically ICS classes taught by California fire protection agencies at training facilities around California, as well as around the country, meet CICCS standards.

In addition, one of the aspects of the CICCS is a "Historical Recognition" period. Until December 31, 2005, an agency or organization can recognize the training and experience of existing personnel and certify them. Historical Recognition should reduce the need to provide additional training or experience for personnel that currently meet or exceed minimum standards.

- (2) Will the new CICCS develop a certification system that excludes the involvement or approval of the local fire department chief?

No. The local fire chief is required to approve the participation of his/her personnel at several phases of the training process. In fact, the local fire chief is the certifying official for all positions at the ICS 100 and ICS 200 levels. The local fire chief must also be involved in several steps of the certification system in the ICS 300 through the ICS 600 levels. For example, part of the application process for Peer Review includes a letter from the applicant's fire chief indicating that the individual meets certification requirements.

The applicant will be awarded a State Fire Marshal certificate upon passing the Peer Review Committees evaluation. The decision whether a certified individual meets the physical fitness and currency requirements and may be designated "Qualified" to fill the position within the state mutual aid system rests with the home agency fire chief. It's not possible for a fire department member to achieve advancement through the CICCIS without the fire chief approving steps along the way.

- (3) Is a fire department "required" by the California State Fire Marshal or the Office of Emergency Services to participate in the CICCIS?

No. As in all certification systems CICCIS is voluntary. These standards will apply to those hazard risks that historically involve statewide movement of resources from one agency to the other. These typically include incidents such as wildfire, floods, urban search and rescue, civil disturbances, earthquakes and major hazardous material incidents. These standards would not necessarily apply to incidents that are routine first level responses within an agency or department.

- (4) What will be the cost to be Certified by at the 500 or 600 level?

There is not a fee for this certification.

- (5) What happens if a fire department decides not to participate in the CICCIS?

Participation in the CICCIS is not required. However, CICCIS may eventually be recognized as the "industry standard" for wildland fire training throughout the California fire service, just as NWCG 310-1 is held as a national standard in the wildland fire community. All fire departments in California are encouraged to participate in the CICCIS.

The standards for the CICCIS are being written into the new Five Party Agreement (Cooperative Agreement for Local Government Fire Suppression). Not meeting the CICCIS standards could impact the ability of a fire department to qualify for being reimbursed by the forest agencies who are signatories to this agreement. In addition, the SBFS, FIRESCOPE, California Fire Chief's Association, and California State Firefighter's Association have endorsed the CICCIS.

- (6) What is the status of the Incident Qualification System (IQS) software that was developed to permit fire departments to maintain a computer-based training, experience, and education tracking system for each member? Is IQS only suited to track wildland fire training issues or will it also record data for all risk applications? Will IQS be compatible with the CICCIS? Is this software available and what is the cost?

The National Association of State Foresters (NASF) and the National Wildfire Coordinating Group jointly developed the Incident Qualifications System (IQS). It is based on NWCG 310-1, Wildland and Prescribed Fire Qualification System Guide. IQS is available to be downloaded from the Internet at no cost to the user fire departments.

Some of the standard tracking features of the IQS include: training, experience, fitness, and incident data. Features that can be added to the IQS include: agency-specific courses, training needs analysis, task book tracking, availability of individuals for dispatch, provisions of differing security levels for those using the system, individual tracking needs, and listing of all individuals qualified for a specific position, etc.

- (7) Will California fire departments start issuing "Red Cards" to all personnel?

A Red Card is a wallet sized card used by a federal wildland agency (sometimes printed on red card stock) that is issued annually to federal employees who meet NWCG and agency standards. The value of the Red Card is that it is a portable written record, carried by the individual, which can be checked at an incident to verify the ICS qualifications of the holder. Several fire departments in California voluntarily participate in a local Red Card system. The CICCS will not specifically use the federal Red Card. However, IQS is capable of printing Incident Qualification Cards.

IQS also has the capability to enter a course roster and have all student records updated for that course, or to enter a number of courses for one person at a time. Training officers will be able to provide fire program administrators with critical management information by documenting all qualifying training experience for each individual. Such information is vital in staffing incidents, documenting employee safety briefings, and qualifying training for individual employees.

- (8) Who determines the physical fitness level of individuals in relation to the CICCS?

Physical fitness is not part of the CICCS. In order to be qualified following certification, an individual must be both current in their position and meet the department's physical fitness criteria. Generally a firefighter deemed fit for full fire-fighting duty is considered to meet the NWCG 310-1 arduous requirement. The applicant's Fire Chief makes this decision.

CICCS PROCESS

The CICCS was developed in response to concerns of members of the California fire service who identified a need for a system that enhances the readiness and safety of emergency responders to multi-agency incidents. CICCS is designed as a decentralized program that provides certifications administered at local, regional, and state levels. 100-200 level certification is administered by the local fire service agency; 300-400 level certifications are administered by the OES Operational Area and Regional Level; and 500-600 level certifications are administered by SFT.
