CURRENT SITUATION

Situation Summary:
Firefighters face steep terrain in remote areas, and will continue to mitigate structure threats and find opportunities construct control lines. A Red Flag warning begins at 8:00 p.m. tonight. Winds out of the Northeast at 25-40 mph are forecasted with gusts reaching 70-80 mph. Strong offshore winds and low humidity will create critical fire weather conditions. Unified Command has made steps to notify surrounding communities of evacuation efforts in advance of this weather event.
